

The "361" Club

February 2, 2004

The meeting was hosted by Calamity "Friggin" Jane who received the great honor of not having her picture in the minutes (oops).

Each club member now has an official name with the addition of Boon "Friggin" Doggle and Pancho "Friggin" Villa. Hia "Friggin" Watha is dressed as God knows what. Also, she appears to be observing a rodent on the floor.

A new No "Friggin" Name guest attended. Clearly Maureen has sufficient lack of mental facility to be a strong contributor.

The arena - complete with post-its for the mentally challenged was set up days in advance - hence the dust. Note the glasses prepared for Bill Murray and George Carlin who, unfortunately, were unable to attend due to family emergencies.

The champion, V. Sattui, is challenged by the ever popular Perrier Jouet.
