

the 361 club

February 22, 2004

The meeting, hosted by Boon "Friggin" Doggle, was by far the most exciting meeting to date - no thanks to the host. Poncho "Friggin" Villa after exhaustive research and development created the club logo (see heading), a web site (www.the361club.com) and the beginning of a clothing line. The excitement is building.

Club members modeling the new hats - the designer, Poncho "Friggin" Villa, on the left.

The Contenders:
The Champion - Perrier Jouet
The Challenger - Mumm NAPA
The hot sauce was not a contender

The Votes:
Joanne - Perrier
Sandy - Mumm
Forrest - Perrier
Denny - No Vote

Although it put up a good battle the California challenger was no match for real Champagne.

The shirts worn by Calamity "Friggin" Jane and Hia "Friggin" Watha are definitely not part of the 361 club clothing line. Also, a collection is being taken to buy new jeans for Hia "Friggin" Watha.

Dessert - chocolate cake and hot sauce.
