

July 30, 2019

Return to A One-day Meeting ....but the club motors on

It looks pretty safe

We are glad to see them go

Crossing the Bay

Once again Hia and Boon prepared for a frightening voyage. It turns out that the weather and tide conditions are not the problem. The fact is Boon has the swimming ability of a boulder and Hia fears that some kind of emergency will make her responsible for rescuing something similar to a beached whale.

I hope I don't need to pull him out of the water

Tradition Prevails (finally)

Club tastings for the past several years have been marred by the efforts of Pancho to alter the outcome for political purposes and the dithering of Hia and Kit. Boon's behavior, of course, has been impeccable (or peckable based on the picture above). The trend was broken by the appearance of a contender that was critical to the founding of the club.

The Widow's victory over the quite drinkable Monopole from Heidsieck restored some sense of order and tradition to the club's antics. It should also be noted that the ridiculous comment about boon's behavior does not alter the fact that he is a moron with bad manners who gets to make up the minutes

A must win for the Widow

Hanging Around

The wars have ended?

Chowing down

It's hard to believe but after years of combat Kit and Hia seem to have become friends happy to share food and drink. One keeps waiting for the punch line (pun intended).

They look so happy

Style Page

Very stylish

Good point

Kit seems to be in love with everyone

Kit and pancho exhibiting truly elegant meeting garb. It is crude, yet stylish, and as expected Pancho provided some intellectual content.

See below for the ever cool
Calamity Ware.

It speaks for itself

Fine Dining at the Beach

The 361 Club Food Groups

The main course - starch of course

Although the best nutritionists consider sugar, alcohol and caffeine to be the most important food groups the 361 club has replaced caffeine with starch. After all, calories are important too.

The sugar course

The alcohol course - served throughout the meeting

An Enjoyable Way to Spend Some Time

www.the361club.com

Sometimes we forget about the good things when we really need them. Since minutes are generally produced one day (or one minute) before the next meeting if you are reading this you are well aware of the current pandemic. One bright side is that we all have a chance to think about things we care about that make us happy. The 361 Club website is one of those things. What could be more fun than reliving the absolute lunacy of the 361 Club meetings, products and membership. And while you are at it it's a great time to remember Calamity F. Jane without whom this never would have happened.

I have also heard rumors that, although they won't admit it, some of the world's finest sommeliers are now using the site as a reference on how one should properly conduct Champagne tastings.

Enjoy!