

March 12, 2004

The meeting was hosted by Panco "Friggin" Villa. Pancho understands the seriousness of the club proceedings as witnessed by the sign on his door.

The Contenders:
The Champion - Perrier Jouet
The Challenger - Veuve Clicquot, the Champagne the winner at our first meeting returns as a challenger.

The Votes:
Joanne - Perrier
Sandy - The Widow
Denny - Perrier
Forrest - No Vote

It was close and The Widow is a perennial favorite, but the third consecutive win for Perrier makes it the first member of The 361 Club hall of fame.

Slyde is actively campaigning to be the club mascot. Judging from his expression he is serious.

Desserts have become an important part of the meetings - Pancho didn't disappoint. However, the frozen state of the dessert caused some shrapnel problems for Hia "Friggin" Watha.

Bulletin:

Initial runs of the new apparel line have been sold out. It is rumored that ebay's servers have been swamped by enthusiasts searching for the collectible beach hat.

Although not in costume for a change Hia "Friggin" Watha and Calamity "Friggin" Jane still appear somewhat dazed and confused - see Hia "Friggin" Watha below.

The remainder of the membership doesn't look much better.
