

August 2, 2016

Now a Club Tradition ...Ocean City, New Jersey

For the fourth consecutive year Hia F. Watha and Boon F. Doggle have risked the treacherous crossing of the unpredictable Delaware Bay. Once again the intrepid explorers made the crossing at the height of the greatly feared summer perfect weather season. Despite the steep odds against success they made it.

The calamity theme at summer meetings (in memory of the beloved Calamity F. Jane) has become a tradition.

Treacherous Delaware Bay

The All Time Champion

The Champion Wins Again

The meeting was the return of the winningest Champagne in the history of the club, Perrier Jouet. It was challenged by a California selection, Domaine Carneros, whose parent company is Tattinger the maker of fine Champagnes. As usual the Perrier Jouet prevailed but not without a dissenting vote from Hia "Friggin"

Watha. Despite practicing on a variety of other alcohol laden beverages the club members still managed to appreciate the quality of both the champion and the contender.

Conflict of Interest?

Several years ago Pancho introduced the club members to the products of Calamity Ware. Since then, he has graciously provided various Calamity Ware products for the club membership.

However, given the current state of politics and general social behavior, one must always be alert to the possibility of conspiracies and ulterior motives. According to several unnamed, unknown, but certainly reliable sources Pancho secretly holds the title of Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Calamity Ware. While "innocently" sharing the products with his friends Pancho is building such popularity that Calamity Ware is now seeking offshore manufacturing facilities. Another crushing defeat for the American worker.

The "Octoputts" shirt by Calamity Ware

Calamity Ware Update

Despite the ongoing investigation of Pancho's relationship with Calamity Ware the club members continue to really enjoy the company's products. This year Pancho surprised the Club members with Calamity T-shirts to wear along with their Calamity do-rags while eating from Calamity plates and drinking from Calamity cups. Also, see the Calamity puzzle given to Boon to aid in his recovery from "tin hip" surgery.

Hia and Boon in Calamity r's and do-rags

The gang in uniform

Calamity recovery aid puzzle

Chow Time

Basic Food Groups

Pizza - well done and delicious

Vegetables

Sugar in one of its finest forms

Proper nutrition requires the consumption of all the basic food groups (sugar, alcohol and caffeine). Although caffeine was missing sugar and alcohol were well represented. Pizza, cheese and carrots were a nice bonus.

A Time Honored? Tradition

Hia receives the fake blow from Kit

Once again the pictures of the supposed fisticuffs are unconvincing. Although Hia attempted a grimace when she received the blow she looks way too happy in the subsequent picture. Another conspiracy?

Whatever

Random Observations

Chip tasting?

In attempt to broaden the 361 Club cultural horizons a BBQ chip tasting was attempted. This will probably not carry on as a club tradition.

Pancho and Hia - preparing the arena

Always room for red wine

A summer beer joins the fray