Celebration of Calamity Jane's Birthday

The meeting was the first of what is planned as an annual meeting to remember joyously Calamity "Friggin" Jane whose antics created the club and whose friendship and fun will never be replaced. The club members, although still somber from the memory of Calamity's passing, recognize their responsibility to carry on the club traditions that she valued so much - friendship and absolute lack of any redeeming social value.

The continuing saga of the Italian upstart

In a continued show of strength the amazing Santa Margherita Prosecco once again defeated a French "mainstream" Champagne. This time the victim was Montaudon Brut.

Boon is under professional care for his performance at this meeting. Although knowing the winner he failed to keep track of the votes. In addition, he pretty much forgot to take pictures. Hopefully the therapist helps.

The members in action - based on very few pictures

Serving pizza?

In an unfortunate accident Hia "Friggin" Watha had her finger crushed while trying to bench press a horse. She is currently trying to rehab her serving skills.

Below, Cattle and the one armed wonder sharing a light moment.

Kit "Friggin" Carson and Poncho "Friggin" Villa looking very sincere or perhaps just intoxicated.

Kit and Poncho

A rare head on shot of Poncho and he is actually smiling - certainly worth publishing.
