

June 3, 2006

For the first time since June, 2005 the "original" members were able to get together in New Jersey. With the participation of Kit "friggin" Carson and Don "the tattooed friggin" Guest it was a great meeting.

In a return to the club's roots the original contenders made an exhibition appearance.

The mask, which is clearly possessed, showed up uninvited.

Boon, being a cheap host, offered a moderately priced challenger to the reigning champion, Nicolas Feuillatte (known to the uncultured elements in the club as "fellatio"). The Chandon was easily defeated, receiving only one vote from Calamity "friggin" Jane.

Even though "it's not about the food" the attendees look pretty committed to eating.
