

361 Club News Flash!!

January 25, 2005

On January 25 a traveling trivia team consisting of regular members Hia "Friggin" Watha, Boon "Friggin" Doggle with guests Annie "Friggin" Oakley and Bat "Friggin" Masterson competed at the Dublin Square Pub in San Diego.

Hia and Boon, unable to find a lion settled for a seat on a Rhino.

As expected the 361 Club team won by a large margin, easily beating the point spread. The team celebrated the following evening by consuming the free dinner and drinks that comprised the first prize.

Can you name five professional sports teams whose names do not end in "S"?

Hia, Annie, and Bat somehow became lost on the way back from the pub.
