

Special Meeting
The October meeting celebrated the arrival of the latest entries to the 361 club clothing and gift line.

October 26, 2004

The entire product line including: hats, fleeces (long sleeve and vest), blankets and bottle holders.

Calamity and Boon showing off the new goods

Pancho previewing a prototype hat - perhaps the next product.

Unfortunately, Hia became disoriented and tried to eat the clothing. The logo was removed from her tongue at the emergency room.

Diane, the friggin guest.

The champion - the tasty Paul Roget.
The challenger - Ruinart Brut - hand carried from France by Mini- Guy.

Calamity "Friggin" Jane, as the host, did not vote. The other members voted unanimously for Ruinart. Will Calamity be forced to travel to France before the next meeting?

Photographic evidence of yet another degenerate meeting.
