

September 28, 2004

The arena, prior to the festivities

The arena during the festivities

The aftermath

Due to the retirement of Perrier Jouet as an undefeated champion two new challengers competed for claim to the title. Our host, Hia "Friggin" Watha, provided the fine Pol Roger while Poncho "Friggin" Villa brought the ever popular Mumms.

Hia, the host, did not vote. Among the other members, the vote was unanimous: Pol Roger is the new champion.

A simple, but appreciated dessert. This is what remains of 48 cup cakes.

After seeing photos of the August meeting Calamity and Poncho are trying to figure out how a mask can have expressions.

Note in several pictures the continued use of tasteless, but somehow appropriate place cards.